Ignore the swings. It's like a trained pilot sees turbulence ahead, he doesn't get nervous. The pilot sees turbulence ahead, he gets on the PA and tells the passengers and flight attendants to buckle up until we hit smoother air. Same concept here: Buckle up until we hit $10 CEL.

In overall markets or $CEL specifically? I just gotta watch the margin call since I took out a two loans against $CEL to OTC.... long-term I know it will pay off but still a little nervous about the price action over the next 4/6/8+ as you mentioned.
